EXCLUSIVE MEMBER NEWS

Dear Elaine,

We are glad you are a member and hope that you enjoy all the benefits your membership has to offer. As a reminder, you have one last chance to visit the Museum to see the gorgeous exhibition Another World: The Transcendental Painting Group before it closes on September 26. Coming in October, mark your calendars for the members-only preview of Designing the New: Charles Rennie Mackintosh and the Glasgow Style. But first, kick back and enjoy a sneak peak at some of the work and learn about the artistic processes of artists who will be included in the Foundation's biggest fundraiser of the year, ArtsThrive.

Let the ArtsThrive Artists Tell You About Their Work

Visit our ArtsThrive21 Playlist on YouTube to hear the artists talk about their processes and the work they have submitted to this year's exhibition.

Then find out more about related ArtsThrive events, including the Collectors' Dinner, un-Gala, and Off the Wall.

Save the Date for Member Preview Day

Be the first to see the Glasgow Style

Friday, October 29, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Members are invited to preview a new exhibition from Scotland. You'll see a rich vocabulary of sensuous, attenuated, innovative forms that both reflected and shaped trends in design throughout Europe and the United States.

Designing the New: Charles Rennie Mackintosh and the Glasgow Style is on view at Albuquerque Museum October 30, 2021 – January 23, 2022.

Timed ticketing applies; reserve your free tickets for 10/29 online before you arrive at the Museum. Use your member promo code AMFMEM21.

Stop By and Say Hi!

Stop by the membership desk on 3rd Thursdays to meet Albuquerque Museum Foundation's Manager of Member Engagement Mary Beth Woicak. She can answer questions you might have about your membership. And while you are there, pull for a surprise thank you gift.

Did you know that you can purchase a gift membership at the Museum Store?
