Arts Thrive: Art Exhibition & Benefit

On view October 9-December 5, 2021

ArtsThrive: Art Exhibition and Benefit is held annually in the late fall, and is organized by the Albuquerque Museum Foundation, a not-for-profit organization helping to fund vital educational and exhibition programs, as well as acquisitions at the Albuquerque Museum.

Artwork that is selected to take part in the exhibition is for sale to the public for the duration of the show, with 60% of art sales going back to the artist.

For Future Generations

Keeping art and history and knowledge alive, the Albuquerque Museum is a gift from generous donors and the city of Albuquerque. We delight in sharing the programs and collections with all who avail themselves of our resources. We offer free programs to children and elderly, enhancing lives.

There are many ways to support the Museum and many benefits we provide as we recognize your enthusiasm and contributions. We thank you and appreciate the gifts you provide for this and future generations.

To our new friends we thank you for joining us in this adventure.
