RICH HISTORY

While Columbus explored the New World in 1492, Catholic monarchs took over the last Muslim stronghold in Spain: Granada. The last city in Spain conquered by Fernando and Isabel remains very Moorish in architecture and culture. Granada was one of the richest cities in medieval Europe, and for quite some time it was a Spanish powerhouse. Today it is one of the most visited cities in Spain and home to the Alhambra, a stunning Moorish fortress.

La Mezquita, Córdoba

CULTURAL EXPERIENCES

Andalucía epitomizes everything that comes to mind when one thinks of Spain: flamenco, bullfights, castles, art, wine, beautiful beaches, and who can forget tapas? We'll enjoy unique Spanish experiences, visit a mystical Moorish palace, ponder incredible ruins of once powerful cities, take in an authentic flamenco performance, and contemplate history, religion and art from a new and profound perspective.

Royal Alcáza, Sevilla

FABULOUS CUISINE

Spanish cuisine is among the best in the world. We'll dine in renowned restaurants and taste the exquisite cuisine of the Iberian Peninsula. We'll take a cooking class to learn to make Spain's typical and intricate dish, paella, a delicious combination of seafood, rice and saffron. We'll relish fabulous tapas, going from bar to bar, trying small tasting samples of traditional foods paired with accompanying wines of the area.
