Detailed Itinerary

Day 1 — Thursday, February 25 2027

New Orleans

Private Airport Transfer

1 x Arrival Transfer - Louis Armstrong Airport (MSY)

One vehicle, the whole group — a private Van and chauffeur for a direct, comfortable airport transfer.

Guests will transfer to their hotel to drop off their luggage and check-in before dinner.

Group Dinner at Commander's Place

In a Victorian turquoise mansion in the Garden District, Commander's Palace has defined New Orleans fine dining for over a century. Launched by the Brennan family in 1969, this is where Emeril Lagasse and Paul Prudhomme cut their teeth and where New Haute Creole cuisine was born. Today, under Chef Meg Bickford, the kitchen continues to push the cuisine forward with the same impeccable standards the city has come to expect.

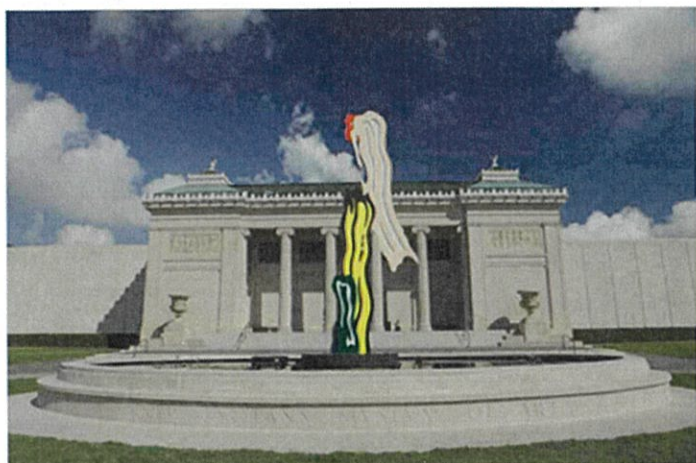

All taxes and gratuities are included.

Day 2 — Friday, February 26 2027

New Orleans Museum of Art Private Tour

The New Orleans Museum of Art occupies a beautiful Beaux-Arts building in City Park, housing 40,000 objects from ancient Egypt to contemporary glass. What makes the visit exceptional is the connection to the Besthoff Sculpture Garden immediately outside -- works by Moore, Rodin, Miro, and over 90 others set among ancient live oaks draped with Spanish moss. Allow around two hours for both museum and garden.

Included: NOMA museum admission.

Cafe NOMA - gift cards

Inclusive Meal

Each guest will receive a $25/person gift card to use at the Cafe NOMA.

New Orleans Jazz Museum - Admission Ticket

Jazz was born in New Orleans and the New Orleans Jazz Museum is where its history is kept. Housed in the beautiful Old US Mint building on Esplanade Avenue, the museum traces the music from Congo Square and Storyville through Louis Armstrong and into the modern era. Live performances on weekends. Allow around 90 minutes.

Included: museum admission.

Not included: food and beverage, gratuities.

Guests can explore Frenchman Street for dinner, or we recommend the following near your hotel:

- Criollo Restaurant
- GW Fins
- Peacock Room
- Mandina's Restaurant

Day 3 — Saturday, February 27 2027

The National WWII Museum - Private Guided Tour Package with Beyond All Boundaries

There is no better place in the world to understand America's role in World War II than The National WWII Museum in New Orleans. Recognized by Congress as the country's official WWII museum and consistently rated the number one attraction in New Orleans, this extraordinary institution tells the full story of the war — and this package ensures you experience it with expert context every step of the way.

The Guided Tour Package combines full museum access and the Beyond All Boundaries 4D cinematic experience with a two-hour small-group guided tour led by an official museum guide. Choose the route that speaks most to your interests: the Home Front Tour traces America's wartime transformation at home; the Europe and Pacific Tour follows American soldiers through both theaters of the war; and the Museum Highlights Tour covers the best of the museum's world-class exhibits and immersive galleries.

Lunch on your own at the museum.

Ogden Museum of Southern Art - Private Tour

The Ogden Museum is one of those institutions New Orleans visitors consistently overlook in favor of the French Quarter, which is their loss. The collection -- painting, photography, sculpture, and folk art from the Gulf Coast to the Appalachians -- is genuinely outstanding. Thursday evenings bring Ogden After Hours: live music, reduced admission, and a relaxed local atmosphere. A natural pairing with the National WWII Museum for a Warehouse District half-day. Allow around 90 minutes.

Included: general admission to all galleries.

Group Dinner at Cochon

1 x Personally Designed

Enjoy a group dinner at Cochon tonight. All gratuities and taxes included.

Day 4 — Sunday, February 28 2027

New Orleans School of Cooking - Hands-On Cooking Class (10am)

Freshly Made Pralines Included (Original & Chocolate)

Louisiana cooking is its own language, and this is where guests learn to speak it. In this three-hour hands-on class, guests work directly alongside an expert chef — chopping, seasoning, and cooking a complete Creole or Cajun meal from start to finish. The experience is as much about the stories behind the dishes as the technique itself, and it ends the best way possible: with the meal guests have just created, served at the table with local beer, lemonade, or iced tea. For guests aged 18 and over.

Time on Your Own to Explore Galleries and the French Market

Farewell Dinner at Antoine's Restaurant

Inclusive Dinner

Dining at Antoine's is stepping into more than 185 years of New Orleans culinary history. Founded in 1840 in the heart of the French Quarter, this is the birthplace of Oysters Rockefeller -- still prepared from a recipe kept secret for over a century -- and a dozen other celebrated French-Creole classics. Fourteen uniquely storied dining rooms await, from intimate private salons to the storied main hall. Few tables in America carry this much history.

Day 5 — Monday, March 01 2027
